Are you ready to blast off this summer? Children up to 12 years old can join our A Universe of Stories Summer Reading Program, beginning May 13 at any Lafayette Public Library location. They can participate in any of the multiple free programs like storytelling, puppetry, crafts, dance, drawing, plays, bubbles, music, and more. There will be one level of prizes, based on reading minutes and challenges. Pick up a reading log from the library or log online at LafayettePublicLibrary.org. The main prize is a space-themed drawstring backpack and a chance to win a bicycle!

The Main Library will host A Universe of Stories Summer Reading Kickoff Celebration on Saturday, June 1 from 10:00 AM until 3:00 PM. In addition to the performances listed to the right, kids can enjoy a fun jump, crafts, community fun with downtown organizations, and more. We'll have food trucks selling a variety of treats. Also joining us is the 4th Annual Bicycle Safety Festival in Parc Putnam from 9:00 AM until 12:00 PM. For more about our Summer Reading Program and Kickoff, call 261-5779.

Director's Message

Bookmobile Revealed on National Bookmobile Day!

Many of us have fond memories of using a bookmobile – discovering great books, meeting friendly staff on hot summer days, or when it came for a classroom visit. Well, those days can now be relived, and new memories can be made as we launch our new GoGo Biblio Bookmobile to service Lafayette Parish!

The library system started a bookmobile service in 1948, but retired the last Bookmobile in the late 1990s. The new Bookmobile project was awarded to LDV Custom Specialty Vehicles in Burlington, WI. It took nine months to complete, and the library paid a total of $255,900 for the custom vehicle. Once completed, a company representative drove it from Wisconsin to Louisiana to deliver it!

The exterior design and logo on the GoGo Biblio Bookmobile were created by Right Angle, a Lafayette advertising agency, with library funds and input. The Lafayette Public Library Foundation paid for the production and application of the wrap. To make the wrap super special, most of the photos feature children and friends in our community. Additionally, the Friends of the Lafayette Public Library supplied funds for the bookmobile's children's collection.

Our Outreach Services department will operate the mobile branch that features Wi-Fi and a wheelchair lift. We understand that there are seniors and families in our parish who are interested in library services but may not have the mobility or transportation to access their nearest branch. With this brand new vehicle, we now have the ability to bring the library to patrons wherever they are.

We plan to bring the GoGo Biblio Bookmobile all over Lafayette Parish! Look for us at parks, daycares, camps, senior centers, community centers, and special events. For more information or to request a visit, contact our Outreach Services department by visiting LafayettePublicLibrary.org/outreach

Teresa Elberson, Director
Lafayette Public Library

Community members are featured on the Bookmobile wrap using library services. One was even asked to help out with the ribbon-cutting! Members of the Lafayette Public Library Foundation, Friends of the Library, and Library Board of Control attended the ceremony.

Steelheart by Brandon Sanderson

There are people gifted with abilities that make them something more than human. Unlike the comic books and movies, these people don't use their powers for good but to conquer, oppress, and do whatever they want to the people of Newcago. As a child, David watched as his father was murdered by one of these superhumans, the notorious Steelheart. Now he has joined the Reckoners, a group dedicated to taking down Steelheart and the other Epics who rule over them.

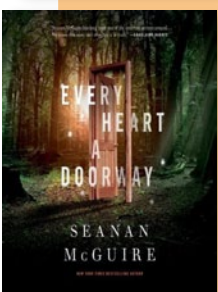

Renegades by Marissa Meyer

The Renegades are a syndicate of prodigies — humans with extraordinary abilities — who emerged from the ruins of a crumbled society and established peace and order where chaos reigned. As champions of justice, they remain a symbol of hope and courage to everyone... except the villains they once overthrew. -- We also LOVE this one on audio!

In Other Lands by Sarah Rees Brennan

Despite his aversion to war, work, and most people (human or otherwise), teenaged Elliott, a human transported to a fantasy world where he attends a school for warriors and diplomatic advisors, finds that two unlikely ideas, friendship and world peace, may actually be possible.

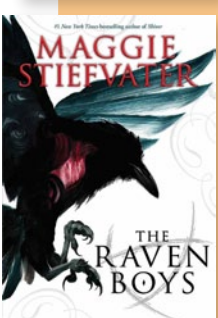

Every Heart a Doorway by Sean McGuire

There are always children who slip through the shadows under a bed or at the back of a wardrobe, tumbling down rabbit holes and into old wells, and emerge somewhere... else. Their parents don't believe them and want them fixed, shipping them off to Eleanor West's Home for Wayward Children. But Miss West, who has been to her own secret world, offers them a different kind of help. Oh, and there's a serial killer on the loose.

The Cheerleaders by Kara Thomas

Kara Thomas' The Cheerleaders is a great read for those of us that believe there's no such thing as a coincidence. Five cheerleaders in the town of Sunnybrook died in a short time span: two in a car accident, two were murdered, and one committed suicide...or is that what actually happened at all?

The Raven Boys by Maggie Stiefvater

As the daughter and niece of clairvoyants, 16-year-old Blue Sergeant has always been on the edge of the supernatural world. On the night of St. Mark's Eve, Blue sees the ghost of a young man - and according to the legends, that means he is her one true love. The boy is Gansey, and Blue is drawn into the world of Gansey and his friends Adam, Ronan, and Noah, as they search for the final resting place of a Welsh king.

YA Book Recommendations

Sawkill Girls by Claire Legrand

The Sawkill Girls stories come together on the island of Sawkill Rock, where gleaming horses graze in rolling pastures and cold waves crash against black cliffs. Where kids whisper the legend of an insidious monster at parties and around campfires. Where girls have been disappearing for decades, stolen away by a ravenous evil no one has dared to fight... until now.

Dread Nation by Justina Ireland

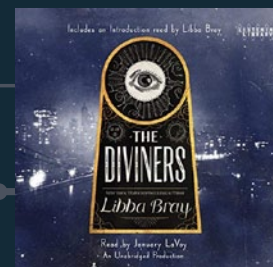

An alternative-history zombie thriller that takes place after the U.S. Civil War ends -- not with the South's surrender, but when the dead begin to rise up on the battlefields. To fight the undead the government enacts a sweeping policy which forces children to attend combat school, where they're taught to be zombie slayers.

Audio Corner

The Diviners by Libba Bray

is a spectacularly eerie audio book. Listening to Evie and her friends discover their otherworldly abilities and come to terms with them is only enhanced by the narrator's soft, melodic voice. Add to that speakeasies, pickpockets, Ziegfeld girls and '20s slang. What more can you ask for?

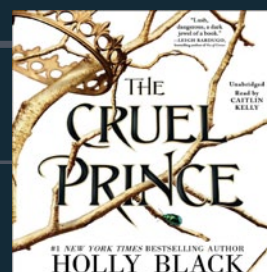

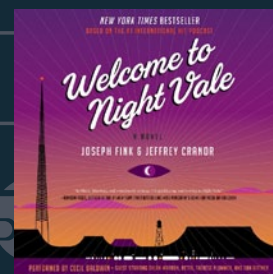

Sadie by Courtney Summers

It's a story about family, about sisters, and the untold lives lived in small-town America. It's about the lengths we go to protect the ones we love... and the high price we pay when we can't. And it begins, as so many stories do, with a dead girl.

Welcome to Night Vale by Joseph Fink & Jeffery Cranor

Located in a nameless desert somewhere in the great American Southwest, Night Vale is a small town where ghosts, angels, aliens, and government conspiracies are all commonplace parts of everyday life. It is here that the lives of two women, with two mysteries, will converge.

The Cruel Prince by Holly Black

Jude was seven when her parents were murdered, and she and her two sisters were stolen away to live in the treacherous High Court of Faerie. Ten years later, Jude wants nothing more than to belong there, despite her mortality. But many of the fey despise humans. Especially Prince Cardan, the youngest and wickedest son of the High King. To win a place at the Court, she must defy him—and face the consequences.

Summer Performers
