Summer is a wonderful time to enjoy reading with your child. It is an extremely important component of your child's transition from one grade to the next. We encourage you to read with your daughter as much as possible over the summer. Below, is a list of books and authors that we know the girls will enjoy with you. These books are available at the library as well as bookstores if you choose to buy them. We are not requiring you to buy any books, nor are we requiring that these specific books be read. These are suggestions. Have a good time reading this summer.

Random House publishes various titles under the "Step Into Reading" series. Any title from Levels 1-3 would be appropriate.

Scholastic publishes various titles under the “Hello, Reader” series. Any title from Levels 1-3 would be appropriate.

Grosset and Dunlap publishes various titles under the “All Aboard Reading” series. Any title from Levels 1-3 would be appropriate.

Aladdin Paperbacks published by Simon Schuster offers various titles under the series “Ready-to-Read.” Any title from Levels 1-3 would be appropriate.

Golden Books publishes various titles under the series “Road to Reading.” Any title from Level 1-3 would be appropriate.

Harper-Collins publishes various titles under the “I Can Read” series. Any title from Level 1-3 would be appropriate.

Non-Fiction: any Dorling Kindersley

any Eye Witness Books

These are just some of the wonderful authors there are to read:

- Bourgeois, Paulette
- Brett, Jan
- Bridwell, Norman
- Brown, Margaret Wise
- Brown, Marc
- Carle, Eric
- Cronin, Doreen
- De Paola, Tomie
- Dr. Seuss
- Falconer, Ian
- Fleming, Debbie
- Grogan, John
- Henkes, Kevin
- Hoban, Russell
- Holabird, Katherine
- Keats, Ezra Jack
- Kellogg, Steven
- Lester, Helen
- Lionni, Leo
- Lobel, Arnold
- McCloskey, Robert
- McCully, Emily Arnold
- McPhail, David
- Milne, A.A.
- Minarik, Else Holmelund
- Noble, Trinka Hakes
- Numeroff, Laura
- O’Connor, Jane and Robin Glasser
- Potter, Beatrix
- Ray, H.A.
- Rylant, Cynthia
- Shannon, David
- Wilder, Laura Ingalls
- Willems, Mo
- Wells, Rosemary
- Wood, Audrey
- Yolen, Jane
- Zolotow, Charlotte