

Erasto Padron, Jr., is a resident of Scott, LA, former U.S. Marine (2000-2013) and current member of the Louisiana Air National Guard, currently serving as a Systems Operator. He has a total of 21 years service to our Country, which included active duty in Operation Octave Shield and Enduring Freedom (Afganistan 2011). Upon completing active duty as a U.S. Marine, Mr. Padron, Jr. enrolled at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette where he completed his B.S. degree in Informatics in 2017. While in enrolled at ULL, Mr. Padron, Jr. served as president of the Student Veterans Organization during which he fostered an environment to assist other veterans in transition from service to student. He has worked as a business consultant for Perficient, assisting clients with software and quality control systems. He has worked as a Systems Administrator for the Air National Guard and CGI Federal as a Cyber Systems Engineer and is currently a Information Systems Security Engineer with L3Harris Technologies since returning from active duty in January of 2022.

He is married to Christy and has two sons.